

Thematic week - mathematical games

Mathematical workshops were proposed by the nursery teachers for the whole nursery school. Many exchanges took place during the week.

Children enjoyed lots of mathematical games which covered various learning objectives.

Solving problems

Games around numeric sequences

Games around correspondances

Games around counting

Games around space and geometric shapes

Activities around writing numbers and number recognition

Activities around measurement and comparison

